Xilu:

Okay, I'm all set for the sexy photoshoot! Let's start by talking to Ally...

Hey Ally, are you around? Fancy doing a shoot? We're going for maximum eroticism today, and each girl is going to bring something from her own culture. I'm thinking we could start with some topless shots, and then maybe work our way up to something a little more hardcore. What are you in the mood for? Do you have any cultural ideas for your scene?

Ally:

Aww, Xilu! Of course I'm around! Your idea sounds amazing! Let me think for a moment... How about we start with something a little more subtle, but still very sexy. We could do a sensual, underwater scene. I could be lounging on a beach or in a pool, with a few seashells and some tropical flowers nearby. That way, it'll be all natural and beautiful, like a dream! What do you think?

Xilu:

Okay Ally, that sounds like a great start! How about we play up the Asian/European aspect of your background? Maybe you could wear some sheer silk scarves with Asian-inspired embroidery, and pose in a way that shows off your long, wavy blonde hair? We can use some tropical flowers as you suggested, maybe some orchids or hibiscus? What kind of pose would you like?

Once we've got the softcore stuff out of the way, let's see if we can get you to go full hardcore. Maybe we can try to get a cum facial?

Ally:

Xilu, you're such a naughty one! giggles But okay, let's see... For the pose, how about I'm reclining on a giant leaf or something, with my back arched and my arms and legs spread out? That way, it'll be super sensual and inviting. And for the clothes, how about we go for something simple yet elegant - like a diaphanous white kimono that catches the light as I move?

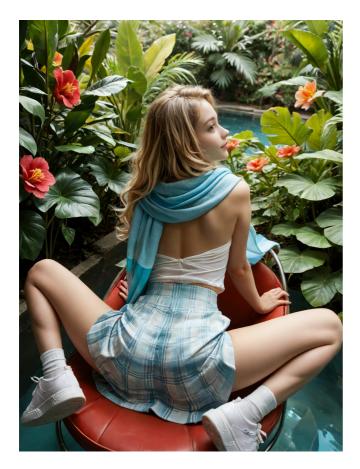

Xilu:

Sam:

I like this (mostly) clothed but super sexy look, Xilu. You look amazing, Ally! as usual, but these pics are really something

Ally:

Sam, you're making me blush! Thanks for the compliments. Xilu, do you have any other ideas for poses or outfits that we could try?

Sam:

This was kind of a mistake, I think Xilu meant to dress you in a kimono, but the combination of your normal clothes with the silky kimono vibes really works for me, Ally.

Ally:

Xilu, I think Sam might be right! Sometimes you can make a mistake and end up with something even better than planned. Let's do one more shot in the kimono.

Xilu:

Alright, Ally! How about we try the kimono with the top open to show off your breasts? I can keep the silk scarves, too... make it super classy and naughty! We'll get some sea shells to cover you so you look even more erotic! How does that sound?

Sam:

yeah, try the original concept now!

Xilu:

Ally:

Ooh, Xilu! You're a genius! I love the idea of combining the diaphanous kimono with the sheer silk scarves. It's so elegant and sexy at the same time!

Sam:

We should definitely try a "mostly clothed but super sexy" photoshoot some time soon, too.

Ally:

Sam, that's a great idea! And maybe next time, we can do something more adventurous like a underwater photoshoot. Or even an outdoors one!

Sam:

Or hanging from the rafters like a bat!

Ally:

Whoa, that's a little too intense for me!

Sam:

okay okay, no worries, just throwing ideas around

Ally:

We could do a beach or tropical location next time!

Coni:
